(c) PROTECTION OF PERSONS SUBJECT TO SUBPOENAS.

- (1) A party or an attoracy responsible for the issuance and service of a subpoens shall take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to that subpoens. The court on behalf of which the subpoens was issued shall enforce this duty and impose upon the party or attorney in breach of this duty an appropriate sanction which may include, but is not limited to, lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fee.
- (2) (A) A person communded to produce and permit inspection and copying of designated books, papers, documents or tangible things, or inspection of premises need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless communicated to appear for deposition, hearing or trial.
- (B) Subject to paragraph (d)(2) of this rule, a person commanded to product and permit inspection and copying may, within 14 days after service of subpoem or before the time specified for compliance if such time is less than 14 days after service, serve upon the party or attorney designated in the subpoems written objection to inspection or copying of any or all of the designated materials or of the premisea. If objection is made, the party serving the subpoems shall not be entitled to inspect and copy materials or inspect the premises except pursuant to an order of the court by which the subpoems may, upon notice to the person commanded to produce, move at any time for an order to complet the production. Such an order to comply production shall protect any person who is not a party or an officer of a party from significant expense resulting from the inspection and copying commanded.
- (3) (A) On timely motion, the court by which a subpoena was issued shall quash or modify the subpoena if a
 - (i) fails to allow reasonable time for compliance.
- (ii) requires a person who his not a party or an officer of a party so travel to a place more than 100 miles from the place where that person resides, is employed or regularly transacts business in person, except that, subject to the provisions of clause (cx/3)/By(iii) of this rule, such a person may in order to attend trial to be commanded to travel from any such place within the state in which the trial is held, or
- (iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter and no exception or waiver applies, or
 - (iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) If a subpoens

- (i) requires disclosure of a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information, or

 (ii) requires disclosure of an unretained expert's opinion or
- (ii) requires disciouse of an intretained expert's opinion or information not describing specific events or occurrences in dispute and resulting form the expert's study made not at the request of any party, or
- (iii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to incur substantial expense to travel more than 100 miles to attend trial, the court may, to protect a person subject to or affected by the subpocera, quash or modify the subpocera, or, if the party in who behalf the subpocera is issued shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship and assures that the person to whom the subpocera is addressed will be reasonably compensated, the court may order appearance or production only upon specified conditions.
